DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO CONTINUE TRIAL

TO THE HONORABLE NITZA I QUINONES ALEJANDRO, JUDGE OF THE SAID COURT:

Defendant, Dkyle Jamal Bridges, by and through his attorney, Andrew David Montroy, hereby moves for a continuance of the November 21, 2018 trial, and requests that a conference with the Government and all defense counsel be scheduled, and in support thereof, states as follows:

1. Trial is set for November 21, 2018.
2. On October 26, 2018, defense counsel received ten additional discs of discovery, which are protected under this Court's Order.
3. Discovery is voluminous, and is believed to consist of numerous hours of prison phone calls and interviews of witnesses as well as thousands of pages of documents, emails and images. Additional time is needed for review of discovery with the Defendant at the Federal Detention Center, and further investigation.
4. Defense counsel is requesting a continuance of the November 21, 2018, and would also ask that Court schedule this matter for a conference with the Government and all defense counsel so that a trial date certain can be selected.

5. Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3161(h)(7)(B), and consistent with the holding in United States v. Toombs, 574 F.3d 1262 (10th Cir. 2009), Defendant submits that good grounds exist for the continuance.

6. The ends of justice will be served by granting a trial continuance pursuant to §3161(h)(7)(A).

7. Granting a continuance for the above-stated reasons outweigh the interest of the public and the Defendants in a speedy trial. Furthermore, a plea agreement between the United States and the Defendant, or a properly prepared defense, is in the best interests of justice.

8. The time until the next scheduled trial date is excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act, and all reasons for the continuance appear on the face of the motion such that a supporting brief is unnecessary.

9. This Motion has the Government's concurrence. Defense counsel for Mr. Jones is opposed to this motion.

WHEREFORE, Defendant, Dkyle Jamal Bridges, respectfully requests this Honorable Court enter an Order continuing the November 21, 2018 trial, schedule a conference with the Government and all defense counsel, and for such other and further relief which the Court deems just.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Andrew Montroy
